FR. BEN'S COLUMN

Take it to heart.

I don't know if this is universally true, but I have noticed an interesting tender rivalry between the parents of newborns when it comes to the child's first word. At first, there is a constant repetition of sounds, but as the child grows a little, we begin to expect words. So, parents voice the words they want the child to speak. This is where the competition begins as mothers insistently repeat the words "mom" or "momma" and the father repeats "dad," "dadda," or some variation.

A Rabbi once told me that for devout Jewish parents they hope for something different. When a child is born into an orthodox Jewish family they repeat the SHEMA (Shema Yisrael or Sh'ma Yisrael שְׁמָא יִשְׂרָאֵל). This prayer is one of the most ancient and important of Jewish prayers. Often, Jewish people will cover their eyes when saying this prayer so that their focus is completely on God and not distracted by the things God has made. These devout parents hope that the first words of their child will be the first word of this prayer: "O Israel, Hear." It is their hope that the first words of their child will be addressed to God. Devout Jews also hope that this prayer will be the last words they ever say. The prayer is traditionally said in the morning and evening every day. The prayer reminds us that there is only one God, and that God is the center and meaning of all and that all our life and actions should be directed to Him. All blessings flow from God and so all gratitude should flow to God.

"Hear, O Israel! The LORD is our God, the LORD alone! Therefore, you shall love the LORD, your God, with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your strength. Take to heart these words which I enjoin on you today."

Today, we hear part of this prayer in the response of Jesus to a question from a teacher of The Law, and Jesus adds, "You shall love your neighbor as yourself."

The SHEMA reminds me of the first two questions and answers in the Baltimore Catechism: Who made you? Why did God make you? The answers are that "God made me" and "God made me to know Him, to love Him, and to serve Him in this world, and to be happy with Him forever in the next." The answer to the second is a little incomplete as God made us also to experience His love. In other words, God made us to be loved by Him and to love Him now and forever. And this is the important point: We are created by God to be loved by Him and to love Him. If you want to know the meaning and purpose of life, this is it. Human happiness and completeness are intrinsically tied to our relationship with God. St. Augustine expresses it in this way: "You have made us for Yourself, and our heart is restless until it rests in You."

From the depths of our being, the human heart, our human desire, knows that this is true and so we constantly reach out for God. Along the way we can get trapped and sometimes try to fill the longing of our heart with things that can never satisfy us: people, power, wealth, anything that can make us feel complete, or at least satisfy us.

FR. BEN'S COLUMN CONTINUED

The problem is that we are made for an eternal and divine good and created things can never fulfill an eternal desire or longing. We often make the mistake of seeking to be satisfied with the created things rather than the Creator – the one who made all things. The truth is that only God can bring us to completeness. We are made for life through, with, and in God and nothing else can bring us to completeness.

We try to replace the Creator with the created things, but the created things cannot replace the One who created them. If you want to be complete and fulfilled, then listen to the wisdom of the Sacred Scripture: "Hear, O Israel! The LORD is our God, the LORD alone! Therefore, you shall love the LORD, your God, with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your strength." Only God can fulfill the human heart, for the human heart is made for God, so put God first and be complete.

A MESSAGE FROM FR. JIM

Karen Brandstetter, our Pastoral Associate, has decided to move on from her position for personal reasons. On behalf of St. Dominic, I want to thank her for her four years of service to our parish. Her ministry included RCIA, Sacramental preparation (Baptism, Confirmation, Marriage), the Parish School of Religion, and working with our religion teachers in the school. She also planned our school Masses and read Bible stories to the children. We wish her God's blessings in the future.

– Fr. Jim

LOVE YOUR SCHOOL AND WANT AN OHIO TAX CREDIT?

The Catholic Education Foundation for the Archdiocese of Cincinnati (CEF) has been certified by Ohio as a scholarship-granting organization (SGO). In keeping with the mission of CEF and the regulations of an SGO, CEF-SGO provides financial-need-based scholarships to students in grades K-12 within the Catholic schools of the Archdiocese of Cincinnati. Supporting students and their formation through Catholic Education is a great way to share our blessings and faith with younger generations. The CEF-SGO may now allow for Catholic Education supporters to be able to receive a tax credit for their generosity. If you would like to donate specifically to St. Dominic School, you can earmark the donation in a donation to The Catholic Education Foundation for the Archdiocese of Cincinnati as "St. Dominic School." Donations can easily be made online at CatholicBestChoice.org/SGO.

Ohio taxpayers who donate to SGOs may be able to claim a dollar-for-dollar, nonrefundable tax credit on their state income tax return for up to $750.00 per donor (up to $1,500.00 if married and filing jointly). Please consult with your tax advisor to determine your eligibility for the tax credit, its value to you, and the details of your gift.

Our future depends on you.

Please remember St. Dominic in your will and estate planning. Our legal title is St. Dominic Roman Catholic Church.

VACATION BIBLE SCHOOL HELP NEEDED – Best VBS ever!!! This year, St. Simon had 153 participants with 23 adults and 44 youth and young adult helpers. Sadly, we had to close registration because we couldn't handle any more students. We have held a Vacation Bible School 15 of the past 16 years (missed a year due to COVID). In that time, we had 1,800 participants who brought in $14,790.78 for various charities including Kids, Cops & Firefighters, Habitat for Humanity, Matthew 25 Ministries to name a few. We also collected around 5,000 items which included canned goods, toiletries, crayons, pencils, and snacks for Holy Family, Anderson Ferry Food Pantry and the United States Navy. We need your help! To continue offering a week of Vacation Bible School, we need more adults who are willing to help plan, decorate, and be here the week of VBS to help. The core group who has been doing this all fifteen years is getting smaller, and the others have been helping for 5-10 years. Most of our helpers were former participants who came back to help. Our volunteers are full-time employees, retirees, college students & grads, homemakers, and teachers. Come join the fun! If you are willing to help in any way, please contact Beth Schumacher at mbschumacher@fuse.net or 513-941-3656, ext. 3. It might surprise you to know that we are starting to plan now for next summer's VBS. If we don't get enough new adults soon, this great experience might disappear.
