FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

I spent a delightful afternoon last Sunday at Seton High School. I attended the Seton and Elder Performing Arts presentation of the musical "Anything Goes." What a fantastic performance! I was especially proud of our St. Dominic graduates who were part of the production. I felt like a proud grandfather! Danielle Jacobs had the lead female role of Reno Sweeney, a star of stage and screen. We knew Danielle could sing as she often cantors at Sunday Masses here at St. Dominic. But her dancing and acting were a surprise to me. She was really into her role. An outstanding performance! Monica White had another of the leading female roles as Mrs. Wadsworth T. Harourt, a doting mother, always interfering in her daughter's life. An excellent performance! Mady Nutter had a key singing and dancing part as one of Reno Sweeney's angels. Alex Mullins played the role of Bishop Henry T. Dobson. Also, in the cast were Mia Roth, Sabra Charles and Ally Sullivan. And working the lights was the ever-faithful Emma Ochs. A great performance! Well done kids!

I ran into Tony and Rita Balzano at the performance. Tony and Rita are St. Dominic parishioners. They are the proud grandparents of Adam Balzano who had one of the male leads as Sir Evelyn Oakleigh. At the end of the musical, Sir Evelyn and Reno Sweeney are in love with each other. It's a small and interconnected world on the west side!

Fr. Jim
