FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

The Christmas season ended last Monday, January 8, with the Feast of the Baptism of the Lord. This Christmas here at St. Dominic has been another blessing for us all. And like the gift of Jesus Christ, God's blessings again came through human hands and human hearts. Thank you for all your expressions of kindness and love in your cards and gifts to me and the parish staff. God has certainly loved us and supported us through you and your generosity.

Once again, we celebrated the Christmas feast well here at St. Dominic. Fr. Chris, Deacon Mark, and I received a lot of comments about how beautifully the church was decorated. Special thanks to our church decorators: Lisa Grady, Chris Gilkey, Connie Debruler, Dalton Debruler, Austin and Ally Gilkey, Emily and Julia Redder, Jenna Sullivan and Brandon Cron. Once again, special thanks go to Robben Florists and Kim King for the beautiful floral arrangements. And, of course, we relied on our maintenance staff of Dan Jacobs and Jason Tuemler for providing the heavy lifting and the Christmas infrastructure. The church looked beautiful!

The music at the Christmas Masses was provided by cantors, and adult and children's choirs. Well done! We owe a debt of gratitude to Jim Dickman and all the musicians and singers who spent hours rehearsing to help us pray and give glory to God. Special thanks to the Hillgrove and White families who provided the music at the 3:00 p.m. Mass on Christmas Eve. It was truly a family affair. Thanks to all the liturgical ministers who did their usual fine job.

The Christmas season has a way of touching hearts. Often, at this time of year, people hear a call to become affiliated with a community of believers and have questions about what the following of Jesus is all about or what is involved in becoming a Catholic. Here at St. Dominic, we can welcome any inquirers at any time during the year and walk with them as they discern where the Lord might be leading them. If you know of anyone in this situation, please encourage them to contact Theresa Eagan here at the office.

May you all experience God's blessings throughout the New Year!

Fr. Jim

MARRIAGE, DIVORCE AND ANNULMENTS

On Monday, January 22 at 7:00 p.m., we will gather in the Faith Sharing Room for a discussion on marriage, divorce and annulments. We will examine what the church says about marriage and what happens when a marriage ends in divorce. We will detail the declaration of nullity process: What is it? When is it necessary? We are offering an attempt to bring a deeper understanding of all marriages. Come join us!

LITTLE SISTERS OF THE POOR

The Little Sisters of the Poor will be present at all the Masses this weekend seeking your assistance in their ministry. For almost 150 years, the Sisters have been offering the needy elderly of the Tri-State, a home where they are welcomed as Christ, cared for as a family, and accompanied with dignity until God calls them to Himself. The Sisters depend on our support to meet the needs of their poor elderly. Your generosity will be appreciated. For more information, visit their website at www.littlesistersofthepoorincincinnati.org.

CHRIST RENEWS HIS PARISH

Renewal Weekend: March 10-11

The CRHP women's team is preparing to offer to parishioners the gift of a renewal weekend. It is a blessing to see the effects of the renewal that Jesus Christ brings about in His people. We don't have to go somewhere else for our spiritual renewal. Ongoing spiritual renewal is the reason we organized parishes in the first place. Come join us for a weekend of spiritual renewal. Experience the Good News of Jesus Christ. This process is at the core of what we are about as a parish community. Take a risk and call and make a reservation to join us. Call Fr. Chris or Carole at 471-7741.
