Pastor's Desk

The St. Dominic Pastoral Council is the primary advisory body of the parish community to me and to the pastoral staff. They offer evaluations and recommendations regarding the quality of parish life and the effectiveness of parish services, programs and policies. They are a cross section of the parish and I trust that their evaluations and recommendations represent the wisdom of the parish community. Their feedback to me and the staff are an important aspect of our planning and decisions concerning parish life.

The parishioners who are serving in this ministry this year are: Mark Bruns, Debbie Henderer, Tom Burnside, Jenny Berndsen, Martha Queenan, Dan Clark, Jo Ann Neidich, Jennifer Bizailon, and Nick Luebbering. If there are issues, programs, needs or policies that you feel we should address as a parish, please make them known to one of these parishioners, to me or to Deacon Mark.

We continue to welcome new parishioners. Many have commented that they like the spirit and the friendliness that they feel here at St. Dominic. Many drive past other Catholic churches to come here. We are living the part of our parish mission statement that says: "we strive to be a warm, welcoming, and caring community of people." As we often sing when we gather for Sunday Eucharist, "All Are Welcome."

Fr. Jim

Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults – RCIA

Rite of Christian Initiation Adapted for Children

St. Dominic's RCIA process continues year-round. Because of this, adults and children can begin at any time. Most who come to the Catholic Church as adults do so because God has called them through other people. If you know someone who may be interested in the Catholic Faith, ask him or her to call us, or ask if he or she would like for you to call and make the first "contact." While new Inquirers can join St. Dominic's RCIA process at any time, because of our lingering "school year mindset," many people begin to consider inquiring about the faith as the new school year begins. Now is a great time to reach out and mention becoming Catholic to someone you know who may be considering it! For more information, contact Theresa at 471-7741, ext. 418 or teagan@stdominichelhi.org.

Veterans Day Mass

The students and faculty of St. Dominic School would like to recognize and thank the veterans of our parish at the 8:15 a.m. School Mass on Friday, November 10. If you are a military veteran of St. Dominic Parish and would like to join us for this ceremony, please RSVP by contacting teacher Mary White at mwhite@stdominichelhi.org or 251-1276, ext. 215, by Friday, October 20th.

First Day of School

Welcome back to all the students, teachers and staff. We saw a lot of smiles on the first day back from both the students and parents!
