FR. BEN'S COLUMNLast words of Jesus – forgive sins.

Some time ago I was hearing Confessions and a young third grader came in and began her Confession with these words: “Bless me Father for I have sinned, it’s been three months since my last contraction.” A little muddled but I knew what she meant. Everyone gets a little befuddled when they go to Confession. So, why go?

Dying declarations are considered so important and trustworthy that they were/are allowed in evidence in English common law. Last words have been significant throughout history. The Confederate General, Stonewall Jackson, in his last delirious moments, is said to have started frantically giving orders to his officers: “Order A. P. Hill to prepare for action! Pass the infantry to the front rapidly!” Then, calmly he said quietly: “Let us cross over the river, and rest under the shade of the trees.” Steve Jobs’ last words were: “Oh Wow! Oh Wow! Oh Wow!” In his last moments the great Mozart said: “The taste of death is upon my lips. I feel something that is not of this earth.”

As he lay dying Pope Saint John Paul II could hear the voices of the young people keeping vigil in St. Peter’s Square and he whispered: “I have looked for you. Now you have come to me.” Six hours before his death, as he slipped into a coma, the Holy Father was heard to say in Polish: “Let me go to the house of the Lord.”

It’s interesting that almost the last things Jesus said just before He Ascended into heaven concerned the forgiveness of sin: “Those whose sins you forgive are forgiven them” (John 20:23). Throughout His ministry Jesus continuously reached out to sinners and said, “your sins are forgiven.” This was a scandal to the Jews who thought it was blasphemy for Jesus to say such a thing for, according to Jewish belief, only God can forgive sins. So, if Jesus claimed the power to forgive sins, He was putting himself on the same level as God and claiming Divine power. And, of course, they were correct. That was exactly what Jesus was claiming. Not only did He forgive sins, He actually came into the world for that very purpose – to save us from the consequence of sin. As the First Letter of Saint Peter says: “He took our sins upon Himself” (1 Peter 2:24).

Forgiveness of sins is so important that Jesus gives the power to forgive sins to His Apostles and their successors. The power to forgive sins, a power that properly belongs to God alone, is passed on by Jesus to His priests because Jesus desires that sin should not have power over us and should not separate us from the love and life of God. Saint John tells us that Jesus gives this power after His Resurrection when he appeared to the Apostles in the upper room. At the same time, He breathed on them, and they received the Holy Spirit (John 20:22-23). This is one of His final acts, one of His final commands, His last actions.

It is a sign of God’s love for us that He gave us a way to be cleansed of the sin that separates us from God our loving Father. It’s a sign of the importance of this sacrament that Jesus gives it to us as one of His last actions. It is a testament to its importance for Him and it should be just as important for us. This Lent maybe we can make an extra effort to receive this sacrament and be cleansed of what prevents us from entering into God’s life and receiving His love.

Come spend an hour in prayer with Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament. Join us on Monday, March 4 at 7:00 p.m. in church for Eucharistic Adoration and Holy Hour with Exposition and Benediction. Fr. Jim and Fr. Chris will also be hearing Confessions during this time.

LENTEN REGULATIONS FOR FAST AND ABSTINENCE

Ash Wednesday, February 14 and Good Friday, March 29, are days of abstinence from meat and days of fasting (that is, limited to a single full meal). Regarding Good Friday, the teaching of the Second Vatican Council should be recalled: Let the paschal fast be kept sacred. Let it be celebrated everywhere on Good Friday and, where possible, prolonged throughout Holy Saturday, so that the joys of the Sunday of the Resurrection may be attained with an uplifted and clear mind. (Constitution on the Liturgy, No. 110.)

The other Fridays of the season of Lent are days of abstinence from meat. The law of abstinence binds all Catholics 14 years of age and older. The law of fasting binds all Catholics from their 18th birthday until their 59th birthday (Canons 97 and 1252).

Regarding the obligatory days listed above, there are frequent questions about the degree of seriousness of the matter. The teaching of the Holy Father may be simply paraphrased: the obligation to do penance is a serious one; the obligation to observe, as a whole or "substantially," the penitential days specified by the Church is also serious. No one should be scrupulous in this regard; failure to observe an individual day of penance is not considered serious. People should seek to do more, rather than less. Fast and abstinence on the days prescribed should be considered a minimum response to the Lord's call to penance and conversion.

BEREAVEMENT MINISTRY

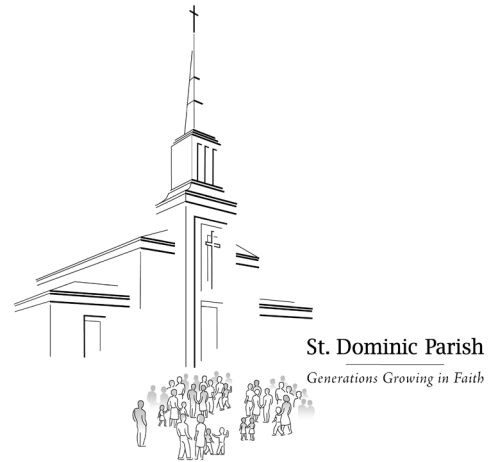

The St. Dominic Bereavement Ministry is looking for people to join our ministry. We meet with families during a deeply emotional time and assist them with planning a Mass for their loved one. The meeting with the family can take one to two hours while you help them plan the readings, music, and other parts of the Mass. On the day of the funeral Mass, we are responsible for preparing the altar and church for Mass. Our current ministers will guide new members in this rewarding ministry. No experience is needed. Please reach out to Joyce Waller at 513-910-3996 or call the Parish Office for more information.
