FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

Recollections from the summer of 2000 continued! I arrived at the parish 20 years ago, on Sunday, October 1 at 8:00 p.m. Steve Patton was locking up church and gave me a warm welcome.

He helped me carry things to my room in the rectory. He turned out to be the welcoming committee.

That week the school kids had a welcome celebration for me on the playground. They planted a young tree on the bank near Vitt, Stermer and Anderson. Look at how it has grown! Birds of the air come and nest there! The tree was a symbol of the school motto: "A Place to Grow!" The celebration ended with an ice cream social. The kids loved it. I was touched! One kid remarked: "This sure beats school!"

I experienced God's invitation and challenge in the event! I told the children: "This tree will grow bigger, so will you! I hope we will all grow better! By learning more! By loving God and one another better! God will be present and active in our life together! We need to be in touch, and respond, and be grateful!"

– Fr. Jim
