PASTOR'S DESK

What a remarkable Triduum and Easter celebration! The reverence and responsiveness of the congregation and the music at the Holy Thursday Mass of the Lord's Supper always inspires me. A highlight for me every year is watching the parish venerate the cross on Good Friday...parents coming up with little children and placing their little hands on the feet of Jesus...seeing the love and the devotion and the sorrow in people's eyes. It is a moving experience!

I am always amazed at all the work and planning and teaching and mentoring that leads up to our Vigil Baptisms and receptions into the Catholic Church. These folks have been meeting for months learning about the faith and reflecting on the Sunday Scriptures. So many parishioners are involved in this initiation process from catechists and sponsors and Godparents to those who bring the refreshments for the reception after the Vigil.

At the Vigil, we baptized and confirmed Bridget Lee Cahill and Samantha Nicolle Szatkowski. We received Quinton Anthony Nibert into full communion in the Catholic church. All three were confirmed, and received the Eucharist for the first time. We welcomed them into a parish community that is alive and responsive to the power and movement of the Holy Spirit. We continue to rejoice in the wonders the Holy Spirit is working in our midst! Thank you to all involved in our RCIA process. Our parish does this well!

The church again was decorated beautifully thanks to Lisa Grady, Chris Gilkey, Mary Ann Mackey, Judy Luebbe, and God's housekeepers. A special thank-you to Kim King and Robben florists. We are also grateful to our high school students who helped decorate the church: Allie Gilkey, Emily Redder, Jenna Sullivan, Christie Rollfes, and Luke and Colin Kandra. Thank you to Jim Dickman, our choir, Gene Johnson, Mike Leiderbach, Michele Hillgrove, Karen White, Monica White, and all involved in our music ministry. Thank you to all the servers, lectors, cantors, and liturgical ministers for a wonderful Holy Week and Easter. Jesus is alive and present in our midst! Alleluia!

Gratefully,
 Fr. Jim
