FR. BEN'S COLUMNMercy is a Gift

My mother tells the story about getting to know my Dad when they first married. She said that when my father would "occasionally" go out to the local pub that very often he would return home with a stray, usually a cat or dog, but occasionally with another person. My Da had a very tender heart and was a genial and sociable man. The truth is that he could not pass a stray without feeling some tender obligation to pick it up and bring it home. All his life he never changed. My Da was naturally compassionate and sympathetic.

The word compassion comes from a Latin word, and it actually means to "suffer with." So, a compassionate person would: "feel your pain" and respond tenderly and helpfully. We call this compassion. A similar concept is expressed in the word sympathy. Sympathy comes from two Greek words "sym" meaning "together," and pathos "referring to emotion." So, sympathy is a shared feeling for or with someone. "They are grieving, and I feel grief also, with them." Empathy on the other hand is not feeling the same thing but understanding the feelings of another. With empathy, you can imagine or understand how someone might feel, without necessarily having those feelings yourself.

Most of the time when we think of "mercy" we actually mean one of the above, compassion, sympathy, or empathy. But mercy is more than these things; it is bigger, greater, and more generous. Mercy does all of the things above, but it is more; it is a free, undeserved, gift from one to another. It is not deserved, it is not earned, it is not a reward, it is not negotiable – it is freely given.

"Lord, have mercy on me, a sinner." At the depth of this prayer is the realization that God's love is not deserved, or earned, or demanded. This publican knows that he stands before God and by all rights he should not be there, he should not address God, he should not stand before God, and yet, here he is. And then, he speaks from his heart to God. He speaks to God, who is also his Father. He asks for mercy. Mercy is a gift from God given simply out of graciousness, generosity, and love. It cannot be demanded, earned, or expected. It is not given because it is deserved, it is given simply because God is loving, generous, and gracious.

Saint Paul says: "It was while we were still sinners that God sent His Son to die for us." Another translation of this verse is that while we were "God's enemies," He sent His Son to die for us. Now this is the ultimate measure of mercy. It is only because of God's mercy that we, who are sinners, were saved. There is a sense here that the quality of mercy is something that is Godlike, and we are called to live this way. St. Luke (6:36) says "Be merciful, even as your Father is merciful." And St. Matthew says: "Blessed are the merciful."

To go back to my mother and father, and probably most mothers and fathers, they know what it means to be merciful, and they teach us how to live merciful lives. How often do they forgive, how often do they take us back, how often do they overcome the hurt, pain, and anguish their children cause them and still embrace us because, they are our father and mother, and we are their son or daughter. For most of us we see, and we experience, the living expression of mercy in our own lives in the love of our parents. Here mercy is not earned it is freely given, a gift. To live a life that expresses the quality of mercy is truly a beautiful thing, and let's face it, we could all do with receiving and giving a little mercy.

WORLD MISSION SUNDAYThis Weekend October 22 & 23

Be the Lord's "Witnesses" in prayer and support this World Mission Sunday today. On World Mission Sunday, Pope Francis reminds us that in Baptism, we are all called by the Lord to be His missionaries: "You shall be my witnesses" (Acts 1:8). Joining Catholics worldwide this Sunday, we offer our prayers and generous financial support, through the Society for the Propagation of the Faith, to the Pope's missions. When you contribute to the World Mission Sunday collection, you make it possible for the Pope to provide mission support to: 844,000 catechists teaching the faith; 258,540 Religious Sisters caring for children and families; 38,140 seminarians preparing for the priesthood; 26 million children in primary schools; 12,000 clinics caring for the sick and dying; and 8,750 homes for orphaned children and the elderly. Your prayers are most treasured, and they, along with financial help offered today, answer Christ's call to be His witnesses. Thank you!

MEMORIAL MASS

On Wednesday evening, November 2 at 7:00 p.m., all members of our parish who have died this past year will be remembered in a special way at our Memorial Mass. We encourage all families, friends, and fellow parishioners to join us in song and prayer. If you will be attending the Mass to remember a loved one who was not from this parish, please call the Parish Office at 513-471-7741, ext. 0 by October 24 to have them included.

INCLEMENT WEATHER POLICY

Please take note that when St. Dominic School is on a two-hour delay, or closed for the day due to inclement weather, the Parish Office will open at 10:00 a.m. and close at our regular time. We do this to ensure the safety of all our employees. We hope that this change in our schedule will not cause any inconvenience. St. Dominic School follows Oak Hills Local School District for delays and closings.

ST. VINCENT DE PAUL SOCIETY
ST. DOMINIC CONFERENCE REPORT
July 1, 2022 – September 30, 2022

Economic conditions have worsened, and that is reflected in the activities of St. Dominic's St. Vincent de Paul. More people are asking for aid. Rental fees have increased, as well as the price of food. Food requests have increased significantly in the past quarter. Donations were about the same, so we needed to dip into our savings to pay for all the requests. We could use more funds to help our neighbors in need. If you happen to have any extra cash, we can make sure our needy neighbors benefit from it.

St. Dominic's SVdP's receipts were $11,964.12. Since we had a balance in the checking account, we were able to provide $16,587.43 in aid to 75 of our neighbor families made up of 231 adults and children. The breakdown of the aid that we gave is as follows:

Duke Energy	$4,916.64
Water Bills	$282.25
Food & Kroger Gift Cards	$4,093.83
Rent & Mortgage Assistance	$6,852.47
"Twinning Help" to neighboring SVdP Conferences	$442.24

All Saints All Souls

SAINTS IN MY LIFE BY FR. CHRIS

– November is the month that we Catholics remember our beloved dead (All Saints/All Souls Day). Fr. Chris will share some stories about people who have been inspirations, examples, and blessings in his life. This event is open to the public. It will take place October 26 at 7:30 p.m. in the Main Hall of the Convocation Center at Our Lady of Victory and is sponsored by the Knights of Columbus.

GOLDENAIRES OCTOBER MEETING – The Goldenaires of St. Dominic and Our Lady of Victory would like to extend an invitation to all parishioners of Mary, Queen of All Saints family of parishes who are over 50 to attend our monthly meeting. We met as a group on September 26 to discuss how the group will look. The group decided on a mixture of meetings to include educational discussions on topics related to the senior population and fun, social outings. Our first official meeting will feature Mr. Austin Brown, Technology Coordinator, who will do a live demonstration on how to use your smartphone. So, if you have an iPhone or Android and would like to know how to use it better, make a list of what you'd like to learn and join us. Don't be spooked! The meeting will be on October 31 at 12:30 p.m. in the Convocation Center at Our Lady of Victory. If you have any questions, please contact Amy Finke at amyfinke3@gmail.com.
