FR. BEN'S COLUMN

"God did not spare his own Son but gave him up for us."

I lived for a time in a place in rural Ireland and every lunch the staff would gather to eat together. This included farm hands, office, maintenance, and household staff, just a mixed group of people, all ages. There was a man there, Mike, who hardly ever said anything, who was just a genius when it came to making anything. At the same time there was a woman there, Nora, who always seemed to be cross, and angry about something or someone. She had been widowed as a young woman, had three children, and never remarried. Every day at lunch, she had a new target for her pointed jabs and wicked tongue. Eventually, Mike had had enough and after she turned on him, he said to her, "Do you know what, Nora? Tom knew what he was doing when he died young!" Tom, of course, was her husband.

I would like to say that Nora never knew how she negatively impacted other people's lives, or how cross she sounded, or how she tended to pull people down rather than raise them up. But the truth is, she did know, and she continued to act that way anyway. In all other aspects of her life, she seemed to be a good person; she worked hard, raised her family alone, was loyal to her friends, she went to Mass every Sunday and every day during Lent. She was charitable and she was generally a good person. Yet, there was something within her that caused her to speak harshly to others and of others and she never managed to exorcise this demon in her life.

Lent is a time to look at our lives, our relationships and our hearts and ask serious questions about who we are, where we are going, what our lives are about and the changes that we need to bring about to make our lives positive, consequential, good, and even holy. It is not unusual for us to get into bad ways, or bad habits, or off the right path. We can take things and people for granted, including God, Church, wife, husband, children, parents, family, parishioners. It is not unusual for us to become focused on ourselves, our way, our needs, our goals, or our wants. And here is the true issue for most of us: We get so fixated on satisfying ourselves that we forget we are made to love God and our neighbor first and ourselves, as Jesus says, last. To do this, we need to forget ourselves, make self-sacrifices, and be generous so that we can develop a generous spirit, a giving heart, a loving disposition. Is this hard? Darn right it's hard! And that's what makes it meaningful, virtuous, worthwhile, and beautiful – because it demands effort, sacrifice, giving, it demands change, but it leads to transformation.

Saint Paul, in the second reading of Mass today, tells us: "God did not spare his own Son but gave him up for us." God loves us so much that He sent His own Son to die for us. That's how much God loves us. And in the Gospel, Jesus is Transfigured when He enters the presence of God so that He shines like the sun. This Easter, God desires that we also should be transfigured and become a light shining in the lives of others. A light that brings compassion, joy, and love. God has sent us into the world to make that world a better place. God sent us into the world to make the lives of those around us more gracious, better for having us in them. This Lent, we should ask ourselves if that is what we do. And, if it is not, we should be courageous enough to change. That is a sacrifice worth making, for others, for God, and for ourselves. Dying to self is not easy, so we should ask: Am I a person who expects others to die for me or am I a person who is willing to die for others?

IN MEMORIAM

Please pray for the soul of Vera McPherson who died this past week. May she rest in the peace of the Lord.

FROM FR. JIM

“The Reign of God is at hand!” Those were Jesus’ first words in the Gospel of Mark, our Gospel last Sunday. The movement and activity of God is in your midst! We certainly experienced the movement of God last weekend! On Saturday, eight beautiful young people came for a day of marriage preparation. Eight young people choosing to get married in the church and be gift to one another. Amazing! Fr. Chris and I, Charlie DeZarn, Jenny O’Brien, Bob and Mary White, and Deacon Mark offered insights into the theology of the sacrament and how that gets lived out in married life. They went to 4:30 p.m. Mass, and then had a formal dinner prepared by Carole Campolongo.

On Sunday at the 9:30 a.m. Mass, twelve catechumens and twelve candidates for full communion into the church were spoken for by their twenty-four sponsors, and affirmed by the congregation. They were sent to the Cathedral for the Rite of Election and Call to Continuing Conversion and then came back to St. Dominic for a potluck supper. Three of our five parishes were represented.

To top it off, seventeen men attended Christ Renews His Parish over the weekend. They and the Giving Team gave God a chance with them. God was alive and active in their midst! This is Evangelization!

BIBLE STUDY WITH FR. JIM AND FR. CHRIS

Join Fr. Jim and Fr. Chris during Lent as they study the Gospel of Mark (Part 2). This is a continuation of the Fall Bible Study, but you did not have to attend in the fall to join during Lent. If you attended in the Fall and picked up the book for Part 2, you do not need to register. If you did not attend in the Fall or did not pick up a book, please call the Parish Office at 513-471-7741, ext. 0. Fr. Chris will be recording each session, and we will send it out to all those on our Word on Fire email list each week.

BEREAVEMENT MINISTRY

The St. Dominic Bereavement Ministry is looking for people to join our ministry. We meet with families during a deeply emotional time and assist them with planning a Mass for their loved one. The meeting with the family can take one to two hours while you help them plan the readings, music, and other parts of the Mass. On the day of the funeral Mass, we are responsible for preparing the altar and church for Mass. Our current ministers will guide new members in this rewarding ministry. No experience is needed. Please reach out to Joyce Waller at 513-910-3996 or call the Parish Office for more information.

MASS INTENTIONS

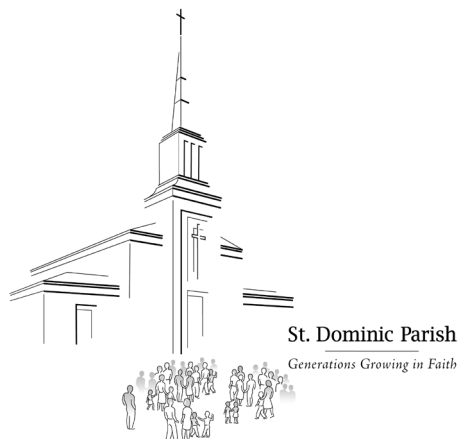

Offering a Mass for a special intention is a long-standing tradition in the Catholic Church. Masses are offered for many reasons: In remembrance of someone deceased; a living person who is sick or suffering; a living person who is celebrating a birthday, anniversary, or another special moment in their life; in thanksgiving to God (including the Lord Jesus or the Holy Spirit); or a special prayer intention. We have several daily Masses over the next few weeks for which we do not have a Mass intention scheduled. If you would like to schedule a Mass, stop in the Parish Office, or call 513-471-7741, ext. 0.

ATTENTION ONLINE GIVERS!

The following special collections are taking place in March if you wish to contribute to them via your Online Giving account.

- March – Capital Improvement
- March 29 – Holy Land

MISCELLANEOUS

WELCOME REFUGEES TO CINCINNATI – Catholic Charities Southwestern Ohio is the official refugee resettlement agency for southwestern Ohio, and we are welcoming hundreds of new families this year. Low-cost affordable housing is in short supply, and we rely on generous donations of furniture and household items to help new arrivals get on their feet. Catholic Charities has an urgent need for able-bodied volunteers (individuals or groups) who are willing and able to help pick up furniture donations and help with moving families into housing. Trucks, vans, and trailers are also most welcome. This can be a one-time, occasional, or frequent volunteer opportunity. We currently have offers of large households of furniture, where larger crews are necessary. Engage in safe, healthy activity, while helping those in need! For more information, please email or call Tonicia Green, Volunteer Coordinator, at tgreen@ccswoh.org or call 513-672-3836.

PROJECT RACHEL – A ministry of the Archdiocese of Cincinnati that serves anyone who has experienced the loss of a child due to abortion. Individuals can engage in this ministry for healing through one-on-one conversation with peers, consultation with a priest (including in Spanish), support groups, retreats for mothers who have lost a child, and a day of reflection for anyone (father, grandparent, friend, etc.). Go to <https://projectrachelohio.org/> or call the Project Rachel Help Line at 513-784-0531 for information. All conversations and emails are confidential. Next retreat: March 8-10, 2024.

FAMILY CAREGIVER SUPPORT – The Caregiver Assistance Network provides education, support, and resource information for family caregivers. Whether you need support right now or are just planning for the future, we are here for you. We offer support groups, self-care classes and individual coaching. This year, we are also starting a Caregiver Peer Mentoring program where we will match current and former caregivers together so they can offer each other additional support, insight, and perspective. Join us as we encourage and learn from each other, discussing topics such as self-care, communicating with family, tools and resources for aging in place and how to choose between long-term care options. If you are interested in being a Peer Mentor, being matched with someone for individualized support, or would like information on our support groups and self-care classes, please contact our Caregiver Careline at 513-869-4483 or email us at can@ccswoh.org or visit <https://www.ccswoh.org/get-help/senior-caregiver-support-services/>. The Caregiver Assistance Network is a program of Catholic Charities Southwestern Ohio funded through the Council on Aging.

*God of Love,
Through this Lenten journey, purify my desires to serve You.
Free me from any temptations to judge others,
to place myself above others. Please let me surrender even my impatience with others that with Your love and Your grace I might be less and less absorbed with myself and more and more full of the desire to follow You in laying down my life according to Your example.*
