FR. BEN'S COLUMN*Devotion to the Sacred Heart of Jesus

Last Friday, we celebrated the Solemnity of the Most Sacred Heart of Jesus, so this might be a good time to begin, or renew, your devotion to the Sacred Heart and to consecrate your family and home to the Sacred Heart. You might consider displaying a picture or statue of the Sacred Heart in your home.

Almost every Church, built before 1970, seemed to have a statue of the Sacred Heart of Jesus. It was also very common to see images, statues, pictures or icons, of the Sacred Heart in Catholic homes. Devotion to the Sacred Heart was very popular and widespread until fairly recently. This devotion is very ancient in the Church. In the Gospels, we read of the piercing of the Lord's Heart by the centurion Longinus. Saints such as Saint Bernard of Clairvaux, Saint Francis of Assisi, Saint Herman Joseph (d. 1241) of Cologne, Saint Bonaventure (d. 1274), Saint Lutgarde (d. 1246), Saint Mechtilde of Helfta (d. 1298), Saint Gertrude the Great (d. 1302), Lanspergius (d. 1539) of the Carthusians of Cologne, the Benedictine Louis de Blois (d. 1566) Abbot of Liessies in Hainaut, John of Avila (d. 1569), and Francis de Sales (d. 1622) all promoted the devotion in one form or another throughout the Middle-Ages.

The most significant impetus for the devotion to the Sacred Heart in modern times is due to the miraculous apparitions of the Lord to Saint Margaret Mary Alacoque (1647–1690). St. Margaret Mary was a sister of the Order of the Visitation of Holy Mary, in the village of Paray-le-Monial, France. The first apparition took place on December 27, 1673, the feast of Saint John the Evangelist, and the final one eighteen months later on June 16, 1675. She wrote, "He disclosed to me the marvels of His Love and the inexplicable secrets of His Sacred Heart."

Saint Margaret Mary said that Jesus, appearing radiant with love, said: "Behold the Heart that has so loved men...Instead of gratitude I receive from the greater part (of humankind) only ingratitude." It was during these apparitions that the Lord Jesus revealed the character of the devotion and promises He made to those who would honor His Sacred Heart.

Jesus requested to be honored under the figure of His heart, also saying that He asked for a devotion of expiatory love. Jesus asked St. Margaret Mary to work to establish a feast of reparation on the Friday after the octave of Corpus Christi, and from individuals He requested frequent reception of Communion, especially on the first Friday of the month, a "Holy Hour" during Eucharistic Adoration on Thursdays, Confession of sins, and praying for the intentions of the Holy Father.

Promises of the Sacred Heart

To those who honor and consecrate themselves and make reparations to His Sacred Heart Jesus promised that:

- I will give them all the graces necessary for their state of life.
- I will give peace in their families.
- I will console them in all their troubles.
- I will be their refuge in life and especially in death.
- I will abundantly bless all their undertakings.

BULLETIN COVER

Eighth Grade Graduation Brunch.

FR. BEN'S COLUMN CONTD.

- Sinners shall find in My Heart the source and infinite ocean of mercy.
- Tepid souls shall become fervent.
- Fervent souls shall rise speedily to great perfection.
- I will bless those places wherein the image of My Sacred Heart shall be exposed and venerated.
- I will give to priests the power to touch the most hardened hearts.
- Persons who propagate this devotion shall have their names eternally written in My Heart.

In the excess of the mercy of My Heart, I promise you that My all-powerful love will grant to all those who will receive Communion on the First Fridays, for nine consecutive months, the grace of final repentance: they will not die in My displeasure, nor without receiving the sacraments; and My Heart will be their secure refuge in that last hour. He will give them all the graces necessary in their state of life.

IN MEMORIAM

Please pray for the souls of Joe Kern, Tom Gahan and Aimee Imhoff who died this past week. May they rest in the peace of the Lord.

CENSUS UPDATE
