FR. BEN'S COLUMNBe a great spirit in the world.

Why fly like a hen when you can soar like an eagle?

– Saint Padre Pio of Pietrelcina

A few weeks ago, we celebrated the feast of the Nativity of Saint John the Baptist. John is one of the greatest figures in the Scriptures, even from his mother's womb he was already raising his voice to proclaim that Jesus is the Lamb of God and the Savior of the World. There was no silencing John and there was no way of keeping him from carrying out his mission. John was truly a man of conviction, courage, tenacity, and heart. Brave, honorable, and determined that nothing, and no one, was going to keep him from doing what God sent him to do. Like a great eagle, he soared in a world full of pigeons.

One of the readings for the feast of the nativity of John states: "Hear me, O coastlands, listen, O distant peoples. The Lord called me from birth, from my mother's womb he gave me my name" (Isaiah 49:1). What is true of John is also true of us all. Is there anyone in the world who was not sent by God? Is there anyone who does not have a mission from God that they are called to accomplish? God sent you into the world for a particular purpose, a mission all your own. Do you know what it is? Have you achieved it yet? Or have you allowed the "world" to slow you down, deceive you, to cover you over with its useless stuff? Are you soaring with the eagles or clucking around the barn yard with the hens?

Don't waste your life on the "other things," the petty, the selfish, the mundane and the unimportant. Don't waste your life on being someone other than who God created you to be. Don't waste your time doing something other than what God asks you to do. That truly is a waste of time, a waste of gifts and talents, a waste of resources and, most importantly, a waste of a life. Time spent on the "useless stuff" is time we don't get back.

We live in a world of pigeons, scrambling around for the crumbs that fall to the ground, or like barn yard hens that scratch around the farmyard looking for the scraps. Like John, we are made for greatness, we are made with purpose, and we are sent to achieve great things. John didn't let anything stand in his way. Ask yourself: Have I achieved yet what God sent me into the world to do? If not, you have work to do. Get up and do it! Or as Warren Buffett put it: "If you want to soar like an eagle in life, you can't be flocking with the turkeys."

Generosity

"What a treasure is hidden in two small words: 'thank you!'"

– Pope Benedict XVI

BULLETIN COVER

Trueman Family, Mila's Baptism.

FR. BEN'S COLUMN CONTD.

I want to thank all those who have contributed in so many ways to the success of our parishes, St. Dominic, St. Simon, St. Al's, St. Vincent de Paul and Our Lady of Victory over the last year. I realize just how much time, energy, talent and resources it takes to keep a parish alive and moving forward and so many hands with so many gifts make that possible. Liturgy, Schools, Sports, Musical, Concerts, Clubs, Christ Renews, Social Justice Group, Food Pantry, Church cleaning, Festivals, Prayer Groups, RCIA, PSR, PTO, Church environment and beautification, grounds, maintenance, and so much more. Thanks to all who serve on committees and councils giving their time and expertise to aid in the Church's mission. There is a great generosity here at our Family of Parishes and I'm fortunate to see it and be blessed by it. Generosity is a giving that is more than is required – it is an overabundance, a gift. I want to highlight just a few other areas of gratitude.

"You have not lived today until you have done something for someone who can never repay you."

– John Bunyan

Parish Weekly Collection

I want to thank all those who contributed to the many collections we have had at our parishes. In particular, I want to thank you for your incredible generosity to the weekly collection. All parishes surpassed the giving of the previous year. This is a wonderful blessing in the light of so much financial hardship and the rise in the cost of living. The weekly collection really takes care of all the essential aspects of parish life and helps keep the lights, heating, and air-conditioning running; pays salaries, maintains building and grounds, supplies the materials for Mass and the Sacraments and so much more. Thank you all for giving so generously.

Catholic Ministry Appeal

Thank you also to all those who contributed to the Archdiocese's Catholic Ministry Appeal. This appeal is important for several important ministries in the archdiocese and makes a difference in many lives.

IN MEMORIAM

Please pray for the souls of Irene Wubbolding and Jim Schrimpf who died this past week. May they rest in the peace of the Lord.

RIDE TO CHURCH

We have a few parishioners who no longer drive and are looking for someone to take them to church on Sunday. To volunteer or get more information, call the Parish Office at 513-471-7741, ext. 410 on Monday or Wednesday between 9:00 a.m. and noon.

ST. DOMINIC PARISH PICNIC AT STRICKER'S GROVE

All parishioners are invited on Friday, July 26 to our parish picnic at Stricker's Grove from 5:00-10:00 p.m. Admission is free, and rides are open from 6:00-10:00 p.m. (including the roller coaster). Bring your own picnic dinner or purchase your food at Stricker's Grove (Hot dogs, Brats, Metts and Burgers). You can bring your own beverages, but alcoholic drinks cannot be brought into the park. Soft drinks and beer can be purchased at the park. Visit Stricker's Grove website at <http://www.strickersgrove.com/> for directions and information about the park.

SAFE PARISHTraining due July 24, 2024

Everyone registered with SafeParish should have received a training video. The training bulletin is due on July 24. If you have a bulletin past due, you are not permitted to work/volunteer with children, according to the Archdiocesan policy.

With summer activities in full swing, we would like to remind all parish/school employees and volunteers of the requirements of the Decree on Child Protection. All employees and volunteers are required to have completed The Archdiocese of Cincinnati SafeParish: Protecting Children From Sexual Abuse – Archdiocese of Cincinnati Edition.

In addition, employees are required to complete an online background check, manual fingerprinting, and B4 form once prior to beginning employment. Ohio Department of Education licensees may have additional requirements, and school offices or athletic departments should be consulted if there are any questions. Volunteers are required to complete an online background check prior to volunteering with youth. Employees and volunteers are required to stay current in completing SafeParish quarterly bulletins.

With the school year beginning for most in August, please make sure you are up to date on completing the quarterly bulletins or you will not be able to work/volunteer with youth until your SafeParish account is approved. If you did not get the bulletin, check your spam, or junk mail. You can also sign into your account at www.aocsafeenvironment.org. Go to the Training Tab and click on "Due" to see which bulletins are due and their due date. Please direct questions regarding bulletin completion to Deacon Mark Bardono, Safe Environment Coordinator at 513-471-7741, ext. 415 or deaconmark@stdominicdelhi.org.
