FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

My first weeks in the parish, twenty years ago, were spent going to homes to meet the parishioners. Folks with bigger homes would invite the neighbors, so we would have maybe twenty people sitting around with drinks and snacks. I began each gathering by giving a little of my history and background. Then I asked them to introduce themselves and to tell me their experience of the parish, their hopes and dreams for the parish, and where they experienced inspiration in their spiritual lives.

Many folks related that being a parent was significant in their spiritual lives. The challenge to be a faith-filled, loving, and prayerful parent had inspired them and challenged them to be more in touch with God in their lives. Many mentioned Gene Johnson singing “He’s Alive” at Easter as one of the spiritual highlights of their lives!

I got the sense that there is a real sense of community here that centers on the school and some events like the festival and the Christmas Giving Tree! I sensed a basic goodness and openness to my leadership.

I also got a sense of what a father must feel when a child takes his or her place in society as a responsible adult and makes a contribution. When the parishioners talked about Fr. Joe Binzer and Fr. Andy Umberg, and what a good job they did as new priests, I felt a sense of pride! As rector, I was responsible for their formation as priests! These were my boys! I experienced a kind of spiritual fatherhood!

– Fr. Jim

WORLD MISSION SUNDAY

Collection this Weekend

Here I Am, Send Me! Today, on World Mission Sunday, we respond, "Here I Am, Send Me," to our baptismal call to mission, and we offer, at the Eucharistic celebration, our prayers and our generous financial support, through the Society for the Propagation of the Faith, to continue the mission of Jesus. Today we are "sent" out to witness to mission in the world through our prayers and sacrifices for our brothers and sisters around the world. As always, your prayers are your most treasured gift to the Missions. Your prayers and financial help, offered today, WORLD MISSION SUNDAY, support mission priests, religious Sisters and Brothers, and lay catechists who are Christ's witnesses to a world so in need of His healing, love, and peace. There is a special envelope in your box for World Mission Sunday, or you can give online through WeShare.

ST. DOMINIC-DELHI

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS

At the October 6 Knights of Columbus business meeting, national representative Bill Johansen presented the St. Dominic-Delhi K of C with the Triple Star Council award for the fraternal year ending June 30. This award is based on programs held, charitable works performed, insurance promotion, and membership growth. To achieve this level of the award, a council must hold a minimum of 16 major programs and exceed their membership quota by 300%. Our council was one of four in the state of Ohio to achieve this award (out of over 300 councils). This national award is in addition to the 2nd place finish in Ohio and 1st place in our division awarded earlier this year.

The Knights are always looking for good men to join them in their mission of charity, fraternity, unity, and patriotism. They hold their business meeting the first Tuesday of the month and a social meeting the third Tuesday of the month. The social meetings are normally guest speakers or family events that are always open to the entire family. We encourage new members to propose fresh activity involvement and to reinforce our commitment to parish and community service.

If you have any questions about how you can become part of the largest Catholic men fraternal society in the world, you can pick up an informational packet at the racks located at the doors of church or contact Ken Gardner at 484-4714. The council is also looking for former members who would like to renew their membership or parishioners who belong to other councils that they are not active in. You can learn even more about the Knights by visiting kofc.org/join or visit the St. Dominic-Delhi Council Facebook page.
