FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

What a remarkable service the bereavement ministry offers the parish throughout the year and especially each November with our Memorial Mass. On behalf of all who have lost loved ones in St. Dominic Parish, I offer to our bereavement ministry a sincere "thank-you!" Each year, they plan our Memorial Mass for those families who have lost loved ones during the year. Again this year, it was a very moving and comforting liturgy. As each name is read, a candle, lit from the paschal candle, is held up. As the program for the Mass says: "The names of our loved ones are precious to us, and we treasure the gifts and memories that the sound of their name calls forth. A candle bearing each of their names has been lit from the flame of the Easter Candle to remind us that, although we are without their physical presence, the light of Christ still shines within them and holds us close in His love."

This year, eighty-three names were read. Among the names were four infants and some of our most faithful parishioners. We miss their physical presence with us. But they are with us in spirit, especially when we gather at the table of the Lord for Eucharist! Feel their presence! They are in communion with the Lord and so are we!

Fr. Jim

CATHOLIC CAMPAIGN FOR HUMAN DEVELOPMENT (CCHD) WORKING ON THE MARGINS

November 23-24 is our annual collection for the Catholic Campaign for Human Development (CCHD), the national, anti-poverty campaign of the U.S. bishops. CCHD has been an immeasurable blessing for thousands in our Archdiocese over the years. Just this past year, the agencies funded by CCHD have empowered more than 2,500 low-income people to break the cycle of poverty through such feats as finding jobs, responsibly reentering society after prison, educating youth, and securing decent housing and public services for their communities. Archbishop Dennis Schnurr appeals to the faithful this year: "Through the grants we make to well-vetted organizations, CCHD uniquely empowers those in poverty to identify their own needs and to become their own agents of positive change." Please prayerfully and generously consider how you will give on Collection Weekend. Your dollars are making real change! Visit www.usccb.org/cchd to learn more. Also, check out the Archdiocesan CCHD website for more local information: www.catholiccincinnati.org/socialaction.

Kathy Williams, manager of the USO Lounges at the Greater Cincinnati Airport, will be giving a presentation on the mission and works of the USO in our area. Last year, the USO lounges at CVG serviced more than 27,000 active-duty service members, retirees and family members. Since the lounges opened in 2012, the number of men and women who use them has increased each year.

The Knights will also be collecting snack items at this event for the USO Lounges at the airport. Items requested include individual packaged gum, candy bars, cookies, chips, peanut butter crackers, and protein bars. Light refreshments will be served after the presentation.
