FR. BEN'S COLUMNZeal for your children drives me.

It is not unusual for us to have the funeral of veterans here at Our Lady of Victory parish and it is easy to recognize when these funerals are taking place. That's because we surround these funerals with signs of respect. Very often, the hearse has the representative medallion of the particular service, Navy, Marines, Army, Air Force, or Coast Guard, on the side doors. An honor guard lines up in front of church, the casket is draped in the American flag, guns salute at the graveside and the Last Post is played by a bugler. We use signs to honor someone who deserves our respect and people recognize these signs. We don't use these signs for just anyone. No, they are reserved for those who have followed a code of honor. They are reserved for those who have been willing to serve our nation, that is our people, even to a willingness to lay down their lives for their brothers and sisters.

A few years ago, I celebrated the funeral of a World War II veteran, and as the casket was draped with our flag, the four servers that morning, all 7th graders, asked why the coffin was draped with the flag. I told them that this man had served in the army during the Second World War, in fact, he had landed on the beaches of France on D Day. He had marched across Europe, was one of the first to liberate the concentration camps and made it all the way to Berlin. Then he returned home, married, had a family, and lived a good and full life. The young men started to talk among themselves about their grandparents and family members who had served in the military, WWII, Korea, Vietnam, Iraq, and Afghanistan. Then, amazingly, one of them said to me: "You know, Father, it's an honor for us to serve this funeral."

People know when something is important and meaningful for us because they see it in our actions, in our attitudes, in our way of life, in how we act and how we live. We learn to respect, like everything else we learn in life, by observing and learning from those who show us the way. This is especially true of children – they learn by observing, copying, imitating, and following. What is important to their parents will be important to them. How their parents live will be how they live. How their parents show respect to each other and treat each other will be how they show respect. And the same is true of their relationship with God. They will have a relationship with God if their parents show them how to have this relationship. Their relationship with God will be important in their lives if it is important in their parents' lives. Also, children will learn to respect if they see how respect is lived in the lives of those who matter most to them – in the life of Mom and Dad.

Today, driven by zeal for His Father's house, Jesus turns over the tables of the money changers because they have disrespected the Temple of His Father, the temple of the Living God. The heart, our hearts, are to be the temple of the same Living God. We make that temple a suitable, honorable, place for God to dwell by honoring God. How do we honor God? By living up to the code He has set us. The code of honor – the Commandments. How does a son or daughter learn to respect his or her father if they never see that father respect God – the Father of us all. There is a code of honor in life and honorable men and women follow it, and their children learn to live honorable lives from the example they see lived out in front of their eyes. Zeal for our children should drive us to be better parents, better priests, better people, honorable people, good people, God's people. Maybe it is time to turn over the tables of the money changers that have taken residence in our hearts and make the temples, once again, worthy of God's presence, temples worth of our children's love and admiration.

BEREAVEMENT MINISTRY

The St. Dominic Bereavement Ministry is looking for people to join our ministry. We meet with families during a deeply emotional time and assist them with planning a Mass for their loved one. The meeting with the family can take one to two hours while you help them plan the readings, music, and other parts of the Mass. On the day of the funeral Mass, we are responsible for preparing the altar and church for Mass. Our current ministers will guide new members in this rewarding ministry. No experience is needed. Please reach out to Joyce Waller at 513-910-3996 or call the Parish Office for more information.

MASS INTENTIONS

Offering a Mass for a special intention is a long-standing tradition in the Catholic Church. Masses are offered for many reasons: In remembrance of someone deceased; a living person who is sick or suffering; a living person who is celebrating a birthday, anniversary, or another special moment in their life; in thanksgiving to God (including the Lord Jesus or the Holy Spirit); or a special prayer intention. We have several daily Masses over the next few weeks for which we do not have a Mass intention scheduled. If you would like to schedule a Mass Intention, stop in the Parish Office, or call 513-471-7741, ext. 0.

ATTENTION ONLINE GIVERS!

The following special collections are taking place in March if you wish to contribute to them via your Online Giving account.

CELEBRATION OF THE FEAST OF ST. JOSEPH

Our St. Joseph celebration will take place on Saturday, March 16. We will begin serving dinner at 5:30 p.m. The St. Joseph Table tradition began in Italy in the Middle Ages, as a way of honoring and thanking St. Joseph for his intercession. If you have a devotion to St. Joseph or have asked him to intercede, come and join the celebration in his honor. Of course, you don't need to have a special devotion to St. Joseph to join us for a great time. Since the St. Joseph dinner is on Saturday and the rules of abstinence do not apply as they did in Italy when the tradition began, we will be serving meatballs with the meal, even though the purest of St. Joseph Day celebrations continue to be meatless.

Due to the nature of the dinner, and the overwhelming response in the past, we need to know who is attending, and we do find it necessary to limit the number, so please call the Parish Office at 513-471-7741, ext. 0 as soon as possible to reserve a place. We are asking for a donation of $10.00 per person to cover the cost of food, soft drinks, and coffee. Diners may bring their own wine if they like. Vive San Giuseppe!

There are another twenty-two cash prizes, all paid out when won, ranging from $4,000.00 down to $500.00. Tickets are $5.00 each. All money that the council raises with this raffle will be used for charitable works in the parish and community. MISCELLANEOUS

PROJECT RACHEL – A ministry of the Archdiocese of Cincinnati that serves anyone who has experienced the loss of a child due to abortion. Individuals can engage in this ministry for healing through one-on-one conversation with peers, consultation with a priest (including in Spanish), support groups, retreats for mothers who lost a child, and a day of reflection for anyone (father, grandparent, friend, etc.). Go to <https://projectrachelohio.org/> or call the Project Rachel Help Line at 513-784-0531 for information. All conversations and emails are confidential. Next retreat: March 8-10, 2024.

WELCOME REFUGEES TO CINCINNATI – Catholic Charities Southwestern Ohio is the official refugee resettlement agency for Southwestern Ohio, and we are welcoming hundreds of new families this year. Low-cost affordable housing is in short supply, and we rely on generous donations of furniture and household items to help new arrivals get on their feet. Catholic Charities has an urgent need for able-bodied volunteers (individuals or groups) who are willing and able to help pick up furniture donations and help with moving families into housing. Trucks, vans, and trailers are also most welcome. This can be a one-time, occasional, or frequent volunteer opportunity. We currently have offers of large households of furniture, where larger crews are necessary. Engage in safe, healthy activity, while helping those in need! For more information, please email or call Tonicia Green, Volunteer Coordinator, at tgreen@ccswoh.org or call 513-672-3836.

CELEBRATION OF THE MATER DEI CHAPEL AT MOUNT ST. JOSEPH UNIVERSITY – Please join the Mount St. Joseph community on Tuesday, March 19 as we celebrate the work of three Sisters of Charity and three undergraduate students, whose steadfast dedication and creativity gave us a magnificent sacred space – Mater Dei Chapel – and helped light the way for generations of MSJ students and alumni. Their unique story put Mater Dei on the path to be listed on the National Register of Historic Places. The application has been vetted by the Ohio State Historic Preservation Office and submitted to the Department of the Interior. To honor this national treasure, we are hosting a special celebration on the Solemnity of St. Joseph, the Mount’s patron. Mass begins at 7:00 p.m. at Mater Dei Chapel. Mass will be followed by recognition of alumnae artists and a reception in the Seton Center.
