JOIN US AT THE WAILING WALL

In our country, there have been many events of great loss or suffering. We have much that saddens us, so much to grieve, as individuals and as the Body of Christ. So, as we begin our Lent this year, we invite you to bring your sorrows to our parish "Wailing Wall."

For over 2,000 years, Jewish people and believers of all faiths have taken their lamentations to the "Wailing Wall" in Jerusalem, and left their prayers of grief and sorrow literally, in the wall. We invite you to do the same. In our parish Gathering Place, on the Wall, we have started to create a Wailing Wall that represents all the burdens and sorrows that we offer to God with our grief. This Lenten season, we ask our Lord to take our sorrow and the sorrows of our world and transform them with the new life of the Resurrection! You will see that our school children have already started to create our Wailing Wall by writing on paper "stones" what saddens or burdens them and what they hope for during Lent. Your prayers can join theirs as we build our Wailing Wall.

When you come to church, you can fill out a "stone" and add it to the Wailing Wall. You can also send your prayers into the parish by emailing them to kbrandstetter@stdominicdelhi.org and we will complete a stone for you and add it to the Wailing Wall.
