We have set our tuition rate for the 2023-2024 school year at $3,600.00, net of any parish scholarship, etc. As in the past, we welcome any monetary gift to the program; however, we have established gift levels as described below for those who wish to sponsor a student:

Platinum Level Gift of $3,600.00	Sponsors a student for an entire school year
Gold Level Gift of \$2,700.00	Sponsors a student for $\frac{3}{4}$ of the school year
Silver Level Gift of \$1,800.00	Sponsors a student for $\frac{1}{2}$ of the school year
Bronze Level Gift of \$900.00	Sponsors a student for $\frac{1}{4}$ of the school year

Please consider a contribution to this vital program by participating in any of the levels described above, or please feel free to contribute any amount you are able. For additional information, or to make a contribution, please contact the parish business manager, Charlie DeZarn, at 513-471-7741, ext. 417. Thank you for your consideration in contributing to our Adopt-A-Student Tuition Assistance Program.

We will not have Community Dinners during the summer months.

We hope to see everyone at our next dinner on Wednesday, September 20, 2023.

PETER'S PENCE COLLECTION

FR. BEN'S COLUMNJesus asks us all to be shepherds.

There is just a year and a month between my brother David and myself. I was born on January 14, 1964, and he was born on February 16, 1965. As children, we were as close as brothers can be; but at the same time, we would fight, argue, tease, and annoy each other. It seems one afternoon, while playing on the street in front of our house, we got into a brawl. We were probably eight and nine at the time. This wasn't unusual, but on this occasion my mother heard a neighbor lady exclaim, while leaning out from her upstairs window: "isn't that terrible, brothers fighting!" Now, her own sons were no saints, but hearing this really annoyed my mother. At that moment another neighbor, Mr. Flynn, happened to be passing, and my mother called out to him: "Pat, grab those two, will you?" At which point, Mr. Flynn grabbed both of us by the shirt collar, pulled us apart, and delivered us to our mother.

The truth is that on our street, a street of about seventy houses, seventy families, we were never like "sheep without a shepherd." In fact, every parent, one hundred and forty people all considered themselves responsible, in some way, for every child. On that street, every child knew the name of every other child and every adult. More importantly, every adult knew the name of every other adult and every child. Everyone was a shepherd, not only for their own flock, but for the entire flock.

Jesus looked at the crowd and He was "moved with pity, because they were like sheep without a shepherd." He turns to His apostles and appoints them to be shepherds for the crowd. Not just shepherds, but shepherds after His own heart, shepherds like Him. The apostles are then named, listed, identified, so all can know who the shepherds are. They are identifiable, Jesus points them out, they are assigned a task and the sheep know their names. Pope Francis would say that they know the smell of the shepherds, they are that close to them.

In my youth I would have known, and identified easily, who these shepherds were: they were the pope, the bishops, the parish priest. They were the successors of the apostles, and they led the flock of the Lord. To paraphrase St. Paul, now that I am an old man, I see things differently, I see things more from experience, more from the heart of a life lived. I still believe that the pope, bishops, and even priests (God help us), are shepherds, important shepherds, and while they have a God-given mission to lead and care for the sheep, they are probably not the most important shepherds. Maybe it would be better to say they are not the most intimate shepherds.

Every day of my life I have experienced the love, affection, care, sacrifice and even the discipline of shepherds. Certainly, my parents, who gave me life, who nurtured me, cared for me, loved me, healed me, supported me, and so much more. I also experienced this sort of shepherd in my brothers, sisters, aunts, uncles, cousins, family, friends, neighbors, teachers, coaches, the community I was raised in and the people I knew. I see this sort of shepherd in my brothers and sisters now that they are parents, in my nieces and nephews.

I also see it every day here in our parishes, our families, our schools, on the playing fields, in the gym, in the care and compassion that expresses itself every day in so many ways, so many places, so many kindnesses, so much charity, love, generosity, and sacrifice. Everywhere, every day, I see shepherds caring for their own sheep, and for other people's sheep, and lambs. I'm fortunate, because seeing this helps me realize that we are all called to be shepherds, and I see their wonderful work every day. I am fortunate because I can appreciate what God is doing – in you and through you.

Thank you for all you do to care for the Lord's sheep and lambs.

EARLY BULLETIN DEADLINE

Due to the July 4th holiday, we have an early bulletin deadline. Please submit any articles for the July 9 bulletin by noon on June 28.

VOTER REGISTRATION

St. Dominic Parish will be conducting a non-partisan voter registration drive after all Masses next weekend, June 24 and 25. As our bishops remind us, "In the Catholic Tradition, responsible citizenship is a virtue, and participation in political life is a moral obligation" Faithful Citizenship, No. 13. We urge you to register and vote in the upcoming August 8 special election. There will be tables in the Gathering Place with registration cards. If you are not registered or have moved recently, please take time to register.

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS DOMESTIC CHURCH KIOSKS

For the past several years, kiosks purchased by the St. Dominic-Delhi Knights of Columbus have been in place at the doors of church. These kiosks contain booklets from the "Building the Domestic Church" series from the Catholic Information Service provided by the national council. These booklets aim at helping us to live out the Church's mission and vision for our families. Series topics include parenting, fatherhood, and family prayer life, as well as two of St. John Paul II's famous messages for the family – Letter to Families and The Family in the Modern World. We recently added some new titles to the kiosks, including Jesus Christ, The Eucharist, Forgiveness of Sins, and Faith. The national council promotes learning more about our faith through the CIS and maintains a website with these booklets and many others available online, as PDFs, and even mp3 files. This site is located at <http://www.kofc.org/en/cis/index.html>. If you visit this site and see a booklet you would like the Knights to add as a hard copy to the kiosks, email the name of the booklet to kpgardner@fuse.net and we will try to add it as soon as possible.

THANK YOU

I just wanted to thank all those who have so generously contributed to the weekly collection. Your gift makes so much possible and allows the ministry of the Lord to continue in our parish. If you have not given yet, it's not too late. Please consider making a donation before the end of the fiscal year on Friday, June 30, 2023.

– Fr. Ben

MARY, QUEEN OF ALL SAINTS

SOLEMN EUCHARISTIC BENEDICTION – The National Eucharistic Revival is a three-year initiative sponsored by the U.S. bishops to renew the Church and the People of God through a renewed encounter with Jesus in the Eucharist. The Revival officially began on June 19, 2022, on the Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ, the Solemnity of Corpus Christi. The milestone event of the Revival will be a National Eucharistic Congress in Indianapolis, IN, from July 17-21, 2024. Here at Mary, Queen of All Saints, we will celebrate this special time of Eucharistic Renewal with the Solemn Celebration of the Rite of Benediction of the Most Blessed Sacrament from 3:00 p.m.-3:30 p.m. on the first Sunday of each month at Our Lady of Victory and on the third Sunday of each month at St. Al's on the Ohio. Our Solemn Eucharistic Benediction will begin at 3:00 p.m. on July 2 at Our Lady of Victory.

SCOUTS BSA TROOP 483 (Formerly Boy Scouts) – With an 80-year history at St. Dominic, Scouts BSA Troop 483 is a scout-led organization open to boys, enrolled in 6th grade and above or ages 11 through age 18. BSA Scouting develops leaders and outstanding citizens by encouraging boys to explore their interests, serve their communities, and discover their talents through youth-led activities and programming. Scouting encourages spiritual growth, good sportsmanship, companionship, and respect for the outdoors. Under the guidance of adult leaders, scouts advance through a progression of ranks (Scout to Eagle) and develop the skills of being a life-long learner through required and elective merit badges. Troop meetings take place on Wednesday evenings from 7:15-8:30 p.m. throughout the year. We seek to schedule at least one outdoor adventure (camping, hiking, watersports) or community service project per month and one weeklong summer camp per year. The troop participates in parish and community events and uses fundraisers to offset a significant portion of the costs. We are flexible to other school and athletic obligations. We welcome your scout to attend when they are able and enjoy the outdoors! Contact BC Charles-Liscombe, Scoutmaster at charlesratc@gmail.com or 336-686-9723 if you have any questions.
